Poultry Guidelines and Rules:

All Breeds except Game Breeds

1. Rules, definitions and judging procedure as prescribed in the latest edition of the Official Show Rules and the Standard of Perfection of the American Poultry Association., Inc., shall apply to all District and County Fair Poultry Shows, except in such instances where they are in conflict with the Rules and Regulations prescribed by the Department of Food and Agriculture.
2. All State and Local Rules apply and will be strictly enforced.
3. Birds will be shown and judged in the proper division and class for breed variety, age and sex only. If no class is offered, no awards may be made.
4. Disqualified birds and those absent at the time of judging do not count when computing the number of Exhibitors in the class.
5. A Judge may excuse a bird from competition if it appears to be fatigued or out of condition, but the bird shall be counted as an entry.
6. For all classes of Standard-bred chickens, all birds must be identified by leg bands conforming to the entry form on arrival at the show.
7. Pens will be allocated through the Fair Office according to availability.
8. Double coup cages will be available for large fowl. Please state on entry if a double coup is needed. Coups will be assigned on first come first served basis.
9. Primary member classes are listed in the primary member section.
10. All birds must be health inspected on site by the Fair designated health inspector TBD.
Any bird failing to meet the health standards set by the State of California must be removed from the inspection site immediately.
