It sets forth in detail the conditions under which any person or organization, hereafter referred to as Renter, may present commercial or non-profit enterprises, displays, or entertainment in any of our facilities or on any part of the grounds. The Shasta District Fair & Event Center and its Board of Directors, management, staff or agents are responsible solely for the enforcement of the policies provided within, but at its discretion may choose to alter or change said policies, written and implied at any time it so deems.

The Shasta District Fair & Event Center and its Board of Directors, management, staff or agents assume no liability for the cancellation of events, the failure of any event, or any loss, theft, damage, accident or other misfortune associated with any event held on the facility premises.

It is Renter's responsibility to become familiar with all rental rules and regulations. Renter shall be held liable for all policies outlined in this text, please read them carefully, your signature on the Interim Rental Agreement acknowledges you have read and understand all the policies listed herein.

The Shasta District Fair & Event Center, hereafter referred to as the Event Center, is not permitted to rent, lend, or give facilities and services at no charge or at a loss to the Event Center unless approved by the Board. The Event Center is not permitted to rent additional equipment or supplies from other companies for or on the behalf of the Renters. The Event Centers personnel are not permitted to loan tools, supplies or equipment to Renters. The facilities are rented on an "as is" basis. In addition, the Event Center does and will reserve the right to base rental decisions on the best utilization of the facilities, greatest public interest, or highest revenues for the Event Center. The Event Center may refuse an event booking when, in its sole opinion, the event may cause undue, or unusual damage to the facilities, cause or have the potential to cause cancellation of other events due to excessive cleaning or repair time. WEAPONS: Weapons including knives and firearms are prohibited on the Event Center grounds.

Under Penal Code 27573(a), effective September 25, 2024, the sale of firearms, firearm precursor parts, and ammunition on state property is prohibited. As a result, the Department of Justice has clarified that raffles or auctions involving these items are also not permitted on state property, including fairgrounds where many fundraising activities occur.

To comply with this law, organizations looking to conduct raffles or auctions as part of their fundraising efforts may consider an alternative approach. Instead of offering firearms, firearm precursor parts, or ammunition as prizes, they can raffle or auction gift certificates equivalent to the cash value of these items. This allows organizations to continue their fundraising efforts while adhering to the new legal restrictions.

Organizations need to ensure that their raffles comply with all other applicable rules governing such events. Additionally, dealers of firearms, firearm precursor parts, and ammunition are still permitted to engage in advertising, provided they do not violate the new restrictions on sales and raffles on state property.

CLEAN UP: The Renter is expected to leave premises in their pre-event condition; if additional cleaning is required the Renter will be charged at the rate of $75.00/person/hour with a minimum charge of $450.00. - Remove all decorations.

The Event Center is not responsible for any property left by the Renter, exhibitors, participants or the general public. If any materials are left after an event, the Event Center will remove the materials and the Renter will be charged for any storage or removal at prevailing rates.

Private Corporations, LLC's, Partnerships, or Other Entities: The Renter must comply with the requirements adopted by the Event Center.

We find each event held at the Event Center is unique and we review every option when creating an agreement of any sort. Be as thorough as possible when booking your event and we will do the best job possible to see to it that it is a successful one.
